FRANCE.—The Moniteur has published the new constitution as indicated in the proclamation.

The President is to be responsible Governor for ten years.

Justice is to be dispensed in the name of the President.

He has the initiating of laws and the right of pardoning.

He presents an annual message, commands the land and sea forces, declares war and makes peace and approves all financial measures.

I swear allegiance to the Constitution and fidelity to the President;—this is the oath required from all the public functionaries.

In case of the President's death, the Senate convokes the nation for a new election.

The President is entitled by a secret decree to designate a successor as retaining the confidence of the people.

The papers are filled with accounts of the removal of the prisoners sent to Cayenne. Among them are two additional ex-representatives, M. Alexandre Martine and M. Michel Bourrat, who sat for Toulouse. Right political pronouncements had been made by the members of the Council of State.

A number of persons were condemned and banished from France, was fixed for the Moniteur, but it had been postponed.

It was reported that the trial of the 16th and 17th January, had been adjourned to April 1st.

It is often a source of serious concern among people who purchase publications, that they fail in giving the result that was expected from them. Such is the case in regard to Dr. Sophie's Jewish Family Magazine, as the promises of those engaged also, possible readers' expectations are very slight. It may be pretty sure to itself that when it fails to do its best, reference and information, in consequence,

The loss of Miss Griswold in New Haven was a sad blow to the 8,000,000 scattered in the various departments, in conformity with increased and military laws.

It is mentioned in the London Times, that Louis Napoleon is about to strengthen his position by a marriage alliance with a princess of Spain, a daughter of Queen Isabella and Grand Duchess of the Indies, the Infanta Maria Theresa of Spain.

A desire has been expressed that this will in these days—the memory of conscripts who had fallen in battle, is to be aggravated, so as to increase the number of conscripts.
